

ASIAN HEALTH SERVICES

HEALTH CARE FOR ALL. ADVOCACY FOR THE UNDERSERVED.

Annual Report

OUR MISSION

Healthcare for all. Advocacy for the underserved.

Asian Health Services serves and advocates for the medically underserved, including the immigrant and refugee Asian community, and ensures equal access to health care services regardless of income, insurance status, language, or culture.

TOGETHER, WE CONTINUE TO ADVANCE A FUNDAMENTAL BELIEF THAT EVERY PERSON DESERVES CARE THAT IS RESPONSIVE AND GROUNDED IN DIGNITY.

DEAR FRIENDS,

As we reflect on another year of service, resilience, and shared purpose, I am deeply grateful for so many of you, who have stood alongside of us, to make the mission of Asian Health Services possible. Together, we continue to advance a fundamental belief that every person deserves access to quality care that is grounded in dignity.

At Asian Health Services, health care extends beyond the clinic walls. We understand that a patient's well-being is shaped not only by care within clinic walls, but also by responsive support, reliable food, stable housing, safety, transportation, and the experience of being seen and understood. For this reason, our model of care brings together medical, dental, counseling, case management, nutrition, community healing, and public policy work. Your support helps us meet people where they are on their path towards better health.

This year, our teams continued to serve our most vulnerable children, families, and seniors across Alameda County and surrounding areas. In medical exam rooms, dental clinics, counseling spaces, schools, homes, and community programs, we saw the meaningful impact of care for the whole person: an older adult connected to support that allows them to remain independent; a young person linked to counseling resources; a family receiving healthy foods; and a person harmed by violence finding safety, healing, and community.

We also advanced an important milestone: the development of the first Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) Center in Alameda County joined with a Federally Qualified Health Center. For our elders and their families, this center represents more than an expansion of services. It reflects our commitment to ensuring our seniors receive coordinated medical and social support while remaining connected to the communities and relationships that sustain them.

This work is made possible through the strength of our community and the generosity of those who invest in innovative and compassionate care for all. Your partnership helps us provide care for all, strengthen services, and build healthier communities for today's patients and for generations to come. Thank you for standing with Asian Health Services and for helping us create a future in which every person has the opportunity to thrive.

OUR VALUES

Our values are at the core of everything we do

Quality Care

Providing team-based, patient-focused medical, dental and behavioral care, we work in partnership with our patients and families to ensure they live full, healthy lives.

Dedicated Team

Our team-based care achieves a high level of trust that surpasses a typical health care setting. We understand the diverse communities that we serve and treat each patient with compassion and respect.

Whole Patient Focus

Our focus is beyond treating our patients' symptoms. We take a holistic and whole person approach. Our services and programs are designed to value and address what makes each patient a unique individual with different cultural beliefs, language needs, attitudes, and values.

Community Impact

We go beyond our clinic walls and invest in our community's overall health. We know that income, housing, and environmental struggles lie at the heart of poor health. That's why we also address food insecurity, youth leadership, and culturally competent care while working towards supporting safer streets and vibrant communities.

PATIENT STORY

Care that Moves with every generation

From AHS patient to board member Michelle To's journey reflects the power of responsive whole-person care across generations.

When Stanford University student Michelle To traveled to Washington, DC recently, she carried more than her title as a board member of Asian Health Services (AHS)—she carried her family's story. On Capitol Hill, as she met with the offices of Congresswoman Lateefah Simon, Senator Adam Schiff, and Senator Alex Padilla, Michelle spoke not only as a leader, but gave moving testimony as a patient who knows firsthand the power of responsive care rooted in trust and community.

Multiple generations of Michelle's family, including her grandmother, parents, and brother, turn to AHS for care while reaching significant milestones or facing critical moments—all shaping Michelle's understanding of what healthcare can be.

That level of care became especially meaningful when Michelle's grandmother faced serious medical complications, and the family was suddenly navigating conversations no one is ever fully prepared to have. "When my grandmother became very ill, my mom was overwhelmed and unsure what hospice meant," Michelle recalls.

AHS HELPED OUR FAMILY UNDERSTAND WHAT WAS HAPPENING WITH COMPASSION, PATIENCE, AND CLARITY AT A TIME WHEN WE NEEDED IT MOST.

In that moment, AHS offered more than medical guidance. They offered comfort, reassurance, and the profound gift of being understood. Michelle's story is a powerful reflection of what makes AHS so vital: care that honors the whole person, supports families needs as loved ones age, and brings dignity to life's most vulnerable moments.

Today, Michelle carries that experience with her everywhere she serves from the boardroom to Capitol Hill. Her journey is a reminder that supporting AHS helps not only provide excellent care, but also understanding, dignity, and hope for generations of families.
